Subsidy on Sugar

3295. SHRI SATISH PRADHAN: Will the Minister of FOOD be pleased to state: (a) the total quantum of unported sugar to be released through Public Distribution System (PDS), State-wise;

(b) whether its distribution will be on subsidized basis; if so, the quantum of subsidy and the total amount which Government will have to absorb; and

(c) how long Government expect to subsidise sugar through P.D.S.?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF FOOD (SHRI KALP NATH RAI): (a) A statement showing the allocation of imported sugar as levy sugar for the months of September, 1994 and October, 1994 is given at statement (see below). State-wise allocations of imported sugar from the month of November, 1994 onwards are yet to be made.

(b) and (c) It is proposed to subsidise the sale of imported sugar for the Public Distribution System (PDS) so that it can be distributed at a uniform retail price of Rs. 9.05 per kg. throughout the country. The total subsidy on imported sugar would depend upon the quantity of imported sugar to be taken over for distribution through the Public Distribution System. Imports are still continuing . There is no subsidy given by the Government on distribution of indigenous sugar through Public Distribution System.
